MILE is the distance from the start of that day, measured along the day's GPX track. LEG is how far until the next cue.

GOOD TO KNOW

Day 5, mile 30.0: Rouses Point–Lacolle 223 crossing (US-11 / Route 223)
Open 8 AM to 8 PM daily on both sides (not 24 hours). Stop at the car booth with your passport, EDL or NEXUS card. No cannabis. Declare any food.

Hours and closures
Business hours were checked online on 2026-09-27. October hours change often: call ahead before relying on a lunch stop or bike shop.

Emergency
Dial 911 in both the US and Canada. Each day's front page lists bail-out options (trains, buses, Metro).

About this plan
Three days over 90 miles. In October daylight this leaves almost no margin for mechanicals, headwinds or getting lost.

LUNCH

Boulangerie du Vieux-Chambly

Mile 64.4, 0.2 mi off route · 2403 Av. Bourgogne, Chambly, QC · +1 (450) 447-9991

Bakery and cafe on the route, about 0.5 mi before Fort Chambly. Sandwiches and pastries. Replaces Fourquet Fourchette, which has closed.

ROAD & SURFACE

Quiet Lake Shore Rd to Rouses Point, then flat paved Route 223 along the Richelieu to Saint-Jean. The Chambly Canal path is a mix of asphalt and fine gravel. OpenStreetMap has no mapped path for about 4 mi in the middle, so the GPX uses Rue Jean-Talon (Route 223) right beside the canal there; if the towpath is open on the ground, ride it. After that it's bike paths and street bike lanes through Chambly, Saint-Hubert and Longueuil, then the Jacques-Cartier Bridge bike path.

IF THINGS GO WRONG

Amtrak Adirondack at Rouses Point (mile 29.0): the last station where carry-on bikes are accepted. In Quebec, exo buses serve Saint-Jean to Montréal (check bike rules); Longueuil–Université-de-Sherbrooke Metro (Yellow Line) is on the route at mile 79.2, and bikes are allowed outside weekday rush hours.
