Hours and closures
Business hours were checked online on 2026-09-27. October hours change often: call ahead before relying on a lunch stop or bike shop.

Emergency

ROAD & SURFACE

The Chambly Canal path is a mix of asphalt and fine gravel. OpenStreetMap has no mapped path for about 4 mi in the middle, so the GPX uses Rue Jean-Talon (Route 223) right beside the canal there; if the towpath is open on the ground, ride it. After that it's bike paths and street bike lanes through Chambly, Saint-Hubert and Longueuil, then the Jacques-Cartier Bridge bike path.

IF THINGS GO WRONG

Longueuil–Université-de-Sherbrooke Metro (Yellow Line) is on the route at mile 26.8; bikes are allowed outside weekday rush hours. Otherwise, use a taxi or van.
